KARPOV - KORCHNOI SET FOR JULY

USCF - Baguio City, Phillipines, has been designated as the site for the World Champ-ionship match between the current champion, Anatoly Karpov, and the challenger, Viktor Korchnoi. Baguio City was the second choice of both players, Karpov's first choice being Hamburg, German Federal Republic, and Korchnoi's being Graz, Austria. After consultation with the organizers, President Max Euwe of the World Chess Federation fixed the beginning of the match as Sunday, 16 July.

Karpov's readiness was demonstrated in the recently completed GM tournament in Bugojno, Yugoslavia where he finished equal first with former World Champion Boris Spassky over a field of sixteen including Tal (USR), Hort (CZE), Larsen (DEN), Hilbner (GFR), Portisch (HUN) and Byrne (USA) amongst others.

Korchnoi, of course, recently defeated Spassky in a match which earned for him the right to challenge Karpov. Subsequently, he placed second at Wijk aan Zee, Netherlands, a half point behind Portisch.

Since the Butte Copper King's Open had not yet been rated in time for the April Rating Supplement, the hand calculated ratings used at Helena will again be used for pairing purposes at State Tournament unless the players involved can by that time bring with them a Chess Life & Review magazine showing their actual rating in the upper right hand corner of the mailing label. Statewide, very few ratings have changed since the last Montana list printed in January, so a new list will probably not be printed until the June issue of Montana Chess News.

*******

NOTICE * Due to scheduling of the U.S. Championship, Walter Browne has cancelled or curtailed most of his spring tour and it would appear highly unlikely that we will be able to have an exhibition in Montana.

The decisive game of the Helena Open came in the fourth round. Stubberud and Lynch had been upset in the first round by Walt Duncan and Coyle Long, respectively, and Bob Jordan had held too rated Marc Lynn to a draw in Round 3, so the winner of this game would go into the final round with a half point lead.

Montana State University entered two teams in the Chess portion of the ACU-I Intercollegiate Regional Tournament held in Missoula, MT Feb. 11-12, 1978. Jeff Markle and Jim Loy combined for Team I and Howard Hoene was joined by alternate Lon Doll on Team II when George Temple chose not to participate.

Colleges from all over the Northwest were represented at this tournament, which would advance only one team to the national finals. A team from Oregon State University took the coveted ton spot. MSU Team I did very well, however, finishing in third place with Markle scoring  $3\frac{1}{2}-1\frac{1}{2}$  (6th Place Individual) and Loy scoring 3-2 (10th Individual). Lon Doll played well, scoring  $2\frac{1}{2}-2\frac{1}{2}$ , but Howard Hoene had a bad tournament and Team II did not place well.

Montana University, host of the tournament, could not field a team, and was represented by Danny Dutton only, who played well but did not have a chance to qualify for the finals.

The Laramie Semi-Class, held on the first weekend in April, was distinguished by the number of games in which the Fork Trick arose.

In Blair/Lynch: 1. e4 e5 2. Nf3 d6 3. Bc4 Be7 4. 0-0? (Better is d4!) Nf6 5. Rel? This is mistaken as the R stands better on fl. Why not the natural and strong 5. Nc3? White has nothing to fear from the superficial Fork Trick - 5...Nxe4 6. Nxe4 d4 7. Nxe5 dxc4 8. Nxc4 and White would be a clear pawn up.

In Hansen/Finucane, the Fork Trick actually happened: 1. e4 e5 2. f4 exf4 3. Nf3 Be7 4. Bc4 Nf6 5. Nc3 Nxe4! The ! is quoted from ECO, which gives as best play 6. Ne5 Ng5! leading to a "decisive advantage for Black". But, Black was, and is, most afraid of 6. Bxf7+ Kxf7 7. Ne5+ Kg8! (ECO) 8. Oh5 (Not ECO) - (8...Ng5! to be followed by g6 still looks good - ED) - However, the game continued 6. Nxe4 d4 7. Bxd4 Oxd4 and Black is a comfortable pawn up and finally won. White was not impressed with the Fork Trick, however, for in the next round Bagstad/Hansen went 1. e4 e5 2. Nf3 Nc6 3. Nc3

Nf6 4. Bc4? d6? and Black finally won.

Nor did all the Fork Tricks arise only from 1. e4 e5. In Livingston/Birkby 1. e4 d6 2. d4 Nf6 3. Nc3 g6 4. h3 Bg7 5. Nf3 0-0 6. Bc4 Nxe4! 7. Bxf7+ Rxf7 8. Nxe4 and Livingston, the Wyoming Junior Champion, went on to win.

Finally, Vienna Game freak Steve Smith's experience showed that the Fork Trick really doesn't matter: both Smith/Johnson and Smith/Lynch began 1. e4 e5 2. No3 Nf6 3. Bc4. Here, Johnson accepted the Fork Trick, Lynch declined, and both unset the Lyoming Champ in short order.

- It teaches you naturally and effortlessly, while you are playing, to instinctively recognize the best moves in a given position; by channeling your thoughts towards those moves, and only towards those moves. You learn to be a forceful and decisive opponent with a well-defined goal and a precise and direct way to reach it.
- The unique mathematical move rating system builds your ability to recognize and weigh the merits of good and bad choices by giving you in precise numerical terms the relative strength or weakness of your moves. You no longer wander across the chess board making random, uneducated moves; you become a finely tuned machine who knows that a + 1 move is much better than a - 5 one, and your opponents will
- The secret of powerful play is knowledge; precise, accurate and well organized knowledge of sound principles of play. The CYBERATER makes this knowledge a part of your arsenal not by asking you to memorize this opening or that variation; rote memorization is tedious and does not work; but by constantly exposing you to the major tenets of sound strategic and tactical analysis. This know-how is acquired by you effortlessly, in a step-by-step way, while you are playing the machine; by forcing and challenging you to analyze and digest a steady stream of simple but
- Want to heighten your combinatorial skills? Or improve your attacking ability? ... Or bone up on your defensive strategies? ... CYBERCHESS lets you do just that by allowing you to select the programs with the desired game features and characteristics. Would you like to sharpen your opening play? Or the midgame? . . . Or perhaps the ending? . . . Want to improve your ability to play white?

Or are the black pieces your weakness? ... Perhaps you would like to learn certain lines of play? ... Combinations? ... Sacrifices? .... Traps? Gambits, Variations, Mates? Or maybe you just want to play an easy game of chess ... Wallop ... Defeat and humiliate CYBERCHESS just for the fun of it .... You can do all of the above. CYBERCHESS allows you to select your color .... opening lines .... desired game features ... serious learning or just fun play ... It's all at your fingertips wherever and whenever you choose.

In the final round of the Laramie Semi-Class, all games were completed except my own with Doak Heyser of Colorado. If I could win I would split $50 with Expert Robert Fordon of Colorado. After five hours we had reached the position shown at the left. Is my Bishop better than the Knight? Maybe, but I thought I saw a way to force Black's King back after the pieces were gone:

After Black's 48th

49. BxNch KxB 50. P-R4! K-B3? (a) 51. K-Q4 K-N2 52. K-K5 K-N3 53. P-N5 K-N2 (b) 54. P-R5 K-B2 55. K-Q4 (c) K-N2 56. P-R6ch K-R2! (d) 57. K-K5 K-N3 58. KxP! P-Q5 59. P-R7! KxP 60. K-B7! P-Q6 61. P-N6ch K-R3 62. P-N7 P-Q7 63. P-N8=Q K-R4 (e) 64. K-B6 Black Resigns. K-B6 restores the mate threat and if 64... K-R5 65. Q-N4ch wips the Black Pawn.

(a) In light of what follows, probably better is P-Q5ch 51. K-Q3 K-B5 52. P-N5 P-K4 53. P-N6 P-K5ch 54. KxP P-K6 55. P-N7 P-K7 56. P-N8=Q P-K8=Q 57. Q-N5ch K-B6 58. Q-Q5ch with a hard ending in which White has winning chances but has to avoid losing his pawn or giving Black a perpetual check.

(b) 53...K-R4? 54. K-B6! P-Q5 55. P-N6 P-Q6 56. P-N7 P-Q7 57.
P-N8=Q P-Q8=Q (KxP? 58. Q-N5ch and QxP) 58. Q-N5mate.

(c) I haven't yet found the win. P-R6 is faster.

(d) Here Heyser offered a draw, which I nearly accepted, anticipating K-K5 K-N3, K-Q4 K-R2 etc. But, I decided I didn't want to draw and then have Fordon come over and show me how I could have won. So, I thought for another 15 minutes and finally found the right path.
(e) 63...P-Q8=Q? 64. Q-N6mate.
