USCF - International Grandmaster Gary Kasparov of the Soviet Union scored 10-3 to win the third Men's Interzonal Tournament, Sept. 7-26, in Moscow, Soviet Union. International GM Alexander Beliavsky, also of the Soviet Union, went into the last round in a five way tie for second and managed to finish clear second with a score of  $8\frac{1}{2}$ - $4\frac{1}{2}$  by defeating International GM Florin Gheorghiu of Romania in the decisive round. Beliavsky thus qualifies with Kasparov for the candidates matches, the next step in the current cycle for the World Chess Championship in 1984.

Kasparov and Beliavsky join the winners of the other two Interzonals, Zoltan Ribli of Hungary, former world champion Vassily Smyslov of the Soviet Union, Lajos Portisch of Hungary, and Eugenio Torre of the Phillipines, as well as the seeded players, Viktor Korchnoi of Switzerland and Robert Huebner of West Germany, in the eight man playoff for the right to challenge Anatoly Karpov of the Soviet Union for the World Title.

International Grandmaster Larry Christianson of the United States finished four points behind Kasparov, scoring 6-7 to tie for eighth place.

The Grand Prix winner each year is seeded into the Closed Playoff for the State Championship the next year.

The second Montana Closed Championship Playoff, held in Missoula on July 24-25, 1982, was for the second year in a row, a very successful event. The 1981 co-champions, Matt Guthrie, Jim Loy and Kip Stubberud were all present as was the 1981 Grand Prix Champion, Bill Lynch, and Mike Jensen of Missoula. Of the seeded players, only former champion, Ken Mann of Billings was unable to attend. His spot was filled by the top finisher in the Montana Open present, Darren Stacey of Helena, a very promising junior player who acquitted himself quite well.

In the first round, Lynch succumbed to middlegame complications following Guthrie's opening with the King's Gambit, Jensen stumbled in time pressure against Loy's Alekhine's, and Stubberud secured a win against Stacey with the Bird's Opening to revenge his loss to the youngster in the Open.

Guthrie, Loy, Stubberud - 1 ; Jensen, Lynch, Stacey - 0.

In round 2, Lynch blundered badly against Loy's Alekhine's, Guthrie outmaneuvered Kip in a classic Sicilian Dragon, and Jensen overcame Stacey with a Dragon of his own to gain revenge for the draw he'd given up to Darren in the Open.

Guthrie, Loy - 2 ; Jensen, Stubberud - 1 ; Lynch, Stacey - 0.

Loy played steadily to defeat Stacey in Round 3 while Guthrie won the exchange early in a Pirc and ground a win over Jensen. Stubberud tried the Bird's again against Lynch and got an interesting game, but then self-destructed in time trouble.

At the end of the first day, it was clearly a race between Matt Guthrie and Jim Loy with the showdown set for Round 4. Guthrie came out with his King's Gambit guns blazing, but failed to shake Jim's stolid defense and came up empty after his double sacrifice. Lynch managed to get a win over Stacey in a Ruy Lopez while Stubberud and Jensen battled to a draw after 60 moves in a Sicilian Wing Gambit.

Out of the running, Jensen and Lynch drew rather quietly in Round 5 while attention centered on whether or not Stubberud could beat Loy and enable Guthrie to catch up by winning his game with Stacey. The question became academic when Matt couldn't force a win against Darren's fine endgame play and settled for the half point. As it turned out Kip had the same problem, as Jim squeezed out a half point to clinch first place and to wrap up an undefeated tournament.

The quality of play was generally a cut above that in the 1981 Closed, but it still was not as consistently good as one might expect from the State's top players. Jim Loy's play was the most consistent and it paid off for him with a well deserved victory to reclaim the title he last held alone in 1975. Darren Stacey played well in this field, and we'll no doubt be hearing more from him in the future.
